4. Economics and Law

(Economic Mathematics and Statistics, Business Economics and Management, Private and Public Law, Commercial Law, Labor Law, Political Economy, Business Finance, Digital Economics, Digital Law, Business Organization)

Scope of the Assignment

Selected professors will have the responsibility to:

- Coordinate teaching activities in collaboration with a UNINETTUNO professor.
- Conduct interactive teaching involving students through UNINETTUNO Interactive Class Systems (web conferences), workshops, seminars, assignments, and project works.

- Collaborate in research activities of the faculties.
- Produce, upon request from the Faculty, video lessons in English within their scientific field of expertise.

Selection Procedure

The selection will be conducted by the relevant Faculty Councils. Candidates will be selected based on:

- Academic credentials
- International academic experience
- Proficiency in the English language
- Previous teaching experience in English

Assignment Implementation

The assignment will be carried out in a hybrid mode. Professors will collaborate remotely and will be invited to the UNINETTUNO headquarters in Rome, Italy to coordinate teaching and research activities and to receive training on the university's teaching and quality models. The physical stay at the UNINETTUNO central headquarters in Rome may range from a minimum of 5 days to a maximum of one month, even if not continuous.

Duration

The contract will have an annual duration, potentially renewable, to enable a prolonged and productive collaboration between the professor and the International Telematic University UNINETTUNO.

Application Process

To participate in the selection, it is necessary to complete the application using the provided form. The duly completed form should be sent to the email address professor@uninettunouniversity.net, along with:

- Updated Curriculum Vitae in English
- Valid identification document

For the academic year 2023-2024, will be considered only applications received by September 20th 2023
