Once arrived in the campus of the university, you'll see the info point in front of you. With these toolbars you will see directional arrows (see 1) a window that activates if you click "walk/run" down below (see 2) it's also possible to use the keyboard's directional arrows

The most important buttons for learning are the first two, "chat & talk" (see 3 and 4) clicking on the second your microphone will activate. The avatars use a technology of proximity sound so the closer the avatar the louder the voice will be. So always stay close to the professors

IMPORTANT: must have headphones with microphone to use the voice chat

How to pick your avatar's style: Once inside Second life, on the left side bar, you'll see an icon with two people on it, click it and a window will appear, now you can pick a new style for your avatar   (figure 8).

Once you clicked it a window will show up, click on the avatar's image that you prefer (figure 10/11)

The most fitting looks for the campus are under these two categories, new avatars and classic.
